VII. New Business

A. Kalahari

Oct. 11 – 18 Rooms booked at a rate of $122.00. PTO gets $10 per room.

B. Open Committees

Refreshments still needs a co- chair – Family Fun evenings needs chair.

C. Boxtops Contest

Runs Oct. 4-23rd. Prize for most boxtops by class. More contests throughout the year. One will be by grade, whole school and individual. If you want to clip and count over lunch – Clipping days are the 16th and 23rd. Please send in Tyson labels as well Spoke about Amazon Smile, Heinens and Target programs.

D. Recap Meetings

New idea – One Board member go through minutes. No new business presented. No voting will be allowed.

E. Halloween Parade and Parties

10/31 Parade @ 2:15 – Children outside for parade. Room captains will be in contact – only five adults in the room. Snack will be Patterson’s doughnuts and juice.

F. Bookfair

Becky Edwards – Starts Oct 31 – Bookfair will be in Library. Halloween Party day will be preview day – no sales first day. Nov. 1st classes will begin. She is asking parents to come in during their student’s classroom time and Oct. 29th or 30th for set up after school. Scholastic books purchased earns us money for books for school – from fall book fair each classroom teacher gets $150 scholastic dollars, supporting teachers usually $50. Bookfair will be open during conferences. Also last year PTO bought a subscription for 6-10 new books for $500 scholastic dollars. Monthly for 6 months for the library.

G. Conferences – Refreshments Needed

Need to provide dinner Nov. 1 and breakfast for Nov. 2. – Looking for some baked goods. Contact Becky Ohlsen if interested.

H. Popcorn/Popcorn Machine

Every month pops popcorn for kids to purchase during lunch. Idea to replace for a larger model – Roughly $1,500 – Looking at rental company for pricing advantage over online options - Motion for $1,500 or less for Popcorn machine to pop larger quantities – Patrick Fleming motion to approve – Becky Edwards Second – Member vote Unanimous
