IV. Principal's Update

Mrs. Menta – We are doing PRIDE lunch tomorrow due to some reschedules. Integrity continuing throughout the month. Mrs. Zanetti – is focusing on Anxiety. Each group is going well and have been for 6 weeks or so. Teachers make recommendations but parents can as well

Paw point winners – Mrs. Vaynshtok, Mrs. Wyatt, Mrs. Scott – rewards being given

MAP testing is complete – K-2 completed Math and Reading, 3-5 Math, Reading, and Language Reports. Sending home reports tomorrow

MTSS – Multi tiered systems of support – Umbrella of support for students – positive behavioral systems, intervention, tier one and tier two support. K-8 starting now using MAP data and standardized test to get a quick read on students that are falling below a certain threshold. Going to come in with MTSS team and go through these students and setting very specific goals. Teachers will meet again in 4 weeks to make sure that these goals are being met. Parents will be notified if students will be included in the MTSS for reading.

Building leadership team – looking into starting Kindergarten playdates – a few days in the spring to incoming Kindergarten.

End of the year – Read-a-thon: Leveled reading books needed in the bookroom. Looking for a way to raise money to buy books.

Lynn Barras – Idea to have a grade level pen pal to help ease the transition from Newbury – BOE vote will be May or July to finalize territory transfer for 2021
